

there are some angels not meant to be seen... and we know it
because we have seen them
in the places where we should not have been like rum drunk sailors in a bar considering our opportunities over our resources.

because we have seen them.
wf.h.
2018