

tired of fixing the fence
i found the way to fix it forever...
    dismantling it stone by stone ripping it apart slat by slat.
            forever ending the codependence.

do i regret living without a barrier
    without a boundary.
        oh my goodness yes.

no longer behind the wall
    now i have to fix the boundless.

fixing the fence.
