

most of the time we believe that god is the big shot caller
getting to judge
rationally
mystically
whatever
but sometimes satan gets to judge and gets to make the last call.

your first question is to question my knowledge...

well

when she was thrown down into hell
she was thrown back.

now if you can

just try to imagine my shame hell has better taste than I do.

getting to judge.
