

how does the soul arrive.... does it appear like a tired traveler with too much luggage at the train station or does it sneak in like a hand in the cookie jar or does it knock at the door like an official of the law.
could it just be taken as an antidote for the dust.
and then again it may not arrive at all.

i still think you should prepare the guest bedroom with freshly cut flowers and let the scent fill the air
even if you think there is not a road to your house you still have the fragrance.

how does the soul arrive.
