

i keep tripping on the enclosure of sacred space.

temple.

church.

clearing in the forest.

garden.

placement of stones.

bog.

sink hole.

interpreted dream.

mountain.

desert.

ocean.

spring.

catacomb.

the illimitable ocean beginning here.

the list is as endless as the ideas of endlessness or certitude or belief

my issue is why the sacred is enclosed in the weakness of designation by the designators.

i keep tripping.
