

light dressed for death
aroused
shedding time
naked musculature of the dream voids fierce shooting star disappearing into the ocean
i did not see the moment it splashed or how it splashed
into its death.

 i believe it was a manly death.

 it never burned out.

 it remained fire until it was gone.

 i think it knew the score.

 when its time was over

 seppuku...
