

seeing my friend again i asked how things have changed... he explained that once there were so many bad thoughts that he was driven to falling on his knees in evangelical prayer with its aggressive confirmation of salvation.

i should embrace it as well

and he would serve as my guide.

the first thing that i noticed about salvation is it has bad knees.

looking around the corner.

wf.h.

2019