

having read the religious texts.

having read the manuals.

science explaining without maintaining eye contact.

brief biblical splendor in the union of the masculine and feminine.

drawn out sessions of opposites with umpires present.

kundalini and kama sutra under the bed.

delivered joys of righteous love with primitive rules.

all that activity in nature.

farm husbandry.

wild impulses.

raptures and madness.

my confession is

i spent more time in the field or wearing out illustrations than with the texts and spiritual leaders.

perhaps my revelation is shallow

but what i discovered was that the worst position for making love...

is not knowing how to be there.

my confession.
