

alive or dead.

schrodinger and his cat.

examine all the facts.

did the cat have worms.

did the cat belong to one of his young girls.

all of this does not answer the question.

for me

the box does not contain a question at all.

one spiritual and seeking enlightenment.

one physical and searching for clean kitty litter.

lifting the lid for a closer look inside...
