

it is only whispered about in the darkest corners of hell and gossiped about at the garden parties

satan flowing downward
the troubling spirit the accuser and the adversary the tempter smelling of foul evil the angel of the abyss the destroyer and the beast the lord of the flies.

take the manifestation pushing your consciousness the pool of words the arrangement of damnation it is all there as choice.

but there is a new one for the fallen angel or some variant of hierarchy in the unnatural other world.

satan was not punished for pride was not punished for devotion was not punished for imperfection.

a new one or the oldest that has become new again.
the punishment
the assignation for the wings that flap in ice for the fire and not the light with animal companions or the watchers was that satan pointed out to god that god was not really a god...

god was a goddess
gender confusion
gender fear
gender control

a goddess trapped in the wrong body who was not ready to come out yet.

the feminine variant.
