

the miracle.

consciousness of self and its imagination

the skull strapped like the sack of a magician bouncing on one end of the spine.

the miracle.

thrill killer.

consciousness of self and its imagination

the first thing killed in its thrill killing was emptiness before emptiness could kill it.

the miracle

consciousness of self and its imagination

the creation of numbers to keep count and the ordering for all killings that would follow next.

the miracle of consciousness.
