

although there could be a discussion about the need to do it i do not see the point in explaining it
to myself.

periodically i take my ego out and drag it through the mud.
i think this is the responsible thing to do after all it should know about its origins.

exactly at that moment

a sense of pride with the uncreated light of grace and the knowledge of my transcendent awareness radiating an elevated spiritual consciousness in a crown of radiance as existence becomes my throne.

the very next moment after that exact moment

my ten toes

without the splendid archangels without the wonderments without the signs

tell me the mud is pleasantly warm.

the need to do it.
