principles are something that have run out of ideas
                                but not out of meanings.

                                the principles.
                                wf.h.
                                2019