

then again there are those voices... yes the voices of those that speak to god.
my first instinct was to make the offering of everything i am and everything i own but i stopped... when i realized that god probably does not speak with a foreign accent.

then again.
wf.h.
2019