

tribal
war lovers
savage warriors
squawking seagulls attacking shitting on the heads and shoulders of the outdoor seafood diners.
the guests are confused thinking that the birds want to drive them away so they can scavenge the food.

nothing like that is happening... shitting on the heads and shoulders of the guests
is the way seagulls count coup.

ultimate bravery.
