

it was ravenna
in the zone of silence
but that was a hoax
to bolster italian tourism.
i discovered where dante was really interred...

he was entombed
in a bored beyond belief high school locker on a summer school friday night of not making it to graduation because beatrice looked better in makeup than in print.

unmasking the hoax.
